DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

PUBLIC MEETING IN ORANGE.

Pursuant to previous notice, a large and respectable portion of the people of Orange assembled in the Court House, in Hillsborough, on Tuesday, the 25th., when the following proceedings were had:

The meeting was organized by calling Capt. John Berry to the chair, and Thomas Wilson to the desk to act as Secretary.

On motion of W. W. Goss, the Chairman appointed C. E. Parish, M. W. Moore, Capt. John F. Lyon, W. W. Goss, and Alfonso Mangum, a committee to prepare resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

The Chairman upon, taking his seat, explained the object of the meeting in a few well timed remarks upon the state of the country and the duty of the citizen. He concluded by saying, he saw before him gentlemen who had filled high places in the councils of the nation, and he knew this large gathering of the people was to hear them, not him.

When the committee retired, the Hon. W. A. Graham was loudly called for, and for more than an hour he entertained the largest meeting assembled in Orange for many years, in a speech that few can equal and none surpass. After the conclusion of Gov. Graham's speech, the committee returned, and through their chairman reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is cause for general and public rejoicing to see the people of North Carolina again taking their own affairs in their own hands, by holding public meetings and discussing public measures.

Resolved, That we endorse and heartily approve the principles laid down by the great Conservative meeting recently held in the city of Raleigh.

Resolved, That we are in favor of a White Man's Government in a White Man's Country.

Resolved, That as the capacity of the negro for self-government has not been proved by his past history in any part of the world, so it is disproved by the actual condition at the present time.

Resolved, That laws which affect the social relations of a people are only to be ventured on with caution, and are attended with danger, and that a forced equality of races involves a calamity to the black race no less than degradation to the white.

Resolved, That no organized government can continue to exist without limitations on its power, and that such limitations as have heretofore been placed on the right of suffrage, while it leaves negroes in no worse condition than minors, Indians, women and foreigners, are proper and just; that while bad rulers may die or be displaced, the prostitution of the source of popular government is, in a republic, the crown of evils and a calamity which admits of no civil remedy.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the equality of the negro before the law, but not of his power over the law.

Resolved, That we consider those who are attempting, by disfranchisement of whites and enfranchisement of negroes to accomplish the Africanizing the State and the surrender of the government to negroes, to be the enemies of good government.

Resolved, That all citizens of the County and State, who concur in these views, are urged to give the same their hearty and active support; and without regard to former differences of opinion, to use all honorable means to secure their adoption by the people.

Resolved, That President Johnson has, in his veto messages, submitted arguments for our Constitutional rights that our and his enemies cannot answer, and for it he deserves the thanks of all friends of good government, social order and civil liberty.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The Hon. Josiah Turner was then called for, who responded in his usual happy and eloquent manner, giving the League a few sensible hints, and telling the people to go to work in earnest and maintain the honor, the integrity of the County and the State.

In compliance with the plan of organization, the Chairman appointed the following as County Executive Committee:

Thomas Squires, A. W. Cheek, Dr. John J. Allison, Washington Jordan, James McAdams, Hugh Woods, William J. Gray, Dr. William R. Hughes, Capt. Wm. K. Parrish, Lambert W. Hall, Joseph Woods, Captain Addison Mangum, Col. D. C. Parrish, G. W. Jones, M. A. Angiers, W. W. Guess, John McCowan, Major Green, Alexander Dickson, John F. Lyon, Jones Watson, R. B. Saunders, Alvis Durham, Mathew Atwater, H. M. C. Strond, Thomas D. Oldham, Frank Minor, Lemuel Lynch, Dr. Pride Jones, Levin Carmichael, W. F. Strayhorn, Josiah Turner, Jr., and C. E. Parish.

After thanks to the Chairman and Secretary, and an order that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the Hillsborough Recorder and Raleigh Sentinel, the Chairman adjourned the meeting sine die.

THOMAS WILSON, Sec'y.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN BURKE COUNTY.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Burke County, held at Wallis's school house, on the 29th ult., on motion, W. R. Akins, Esq., was called to the Chair and J. L. Lyerly was requested to act as Secretary.

The President, after a few remarks explaining the objects of the meeting, appointed J. L. Lyerly, W. W. Connelly, P. Wallis, John Sides and W. Beard, Esqs., as a committee to prepare resolutions.

After which, Lieut.-Gov. Dr. David Berry to his feet, who addressed the meeting for some length of time, in an eloquent and forcible manner, explaining the obnoxious proceedings of the so-called Constitutional State Convention, now assembled in the city of Raleigh, and also advising his fellow-citizens to rally to the Conservative cause.

After which, the committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Conservatives of this meeting do fully accept, adopt and sustain the principles of the Conservative party.

Resolved, That we fully endorse the resolutions and strictly adhere to the plan of organization, as adopted by the Conservative State Convention, which assembled in Raleigh, February 5th, A. D. 1868.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to Plato Durham, Esq., and other Conservatives in the Convention, for their decided stand in behalf of the Conservative cause.

After which, the President added Pinkney Wallis, Esq., to the list to assist in canvassing the county.

On motion, the thanks of the meeting were unanimously tendered to the President and Dr. David Berry, for the manner in which they had discharged their duties, and on motion it was ordered by the meeting that the proceedings of this meeting should be sent to the Raleigh Sentinel for publication.

W. R. AKINS, Esq., Ch'm'n.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over. On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

Kittrell's Springs Female College, GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is at no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people in the present depressed condition of the country. Our patronage MUST BE EDUCATED.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I beg that my friends, throughout the State, will not allow themselves to be irritated or disturbed, for a moment, by the cowardly and mendacious assaults of William W. Holden, of Raleigh, the Radical candidate for Governor, upon my personal and private character, as a Christian minister and gentleman, or my public character. I feel as calm and as unhurt by his slanderous and libellous assaults as an innocent child. His falsehood and mendacity, as to myself, I can make palpable to every honest mind, if I cared to notice him. My friends know this. I beg them not to retaliate by abuse, or by offering him or his any personal injury, but that they will go to work to bring their friends to the polls, to vote him and the Radical Constitution down.

The cause of his attacks lies deep in his hatred to the Sentinel, because it has been somewhat instrumental, in the past, in his defeat. I know not why Providence keeps me in a position I do not love or desire, but to labor to defeat William W. Holden, and to sustain the cause of truth and right, and the interests of the white people of the State, and of all our people. With the help of Providence, the Sentinel will do its duty in the coming contest.

WM. E. PELL.

RALEIGH, March 6, 1868.

☞ We respectfully ask our contemporaries in the State to publish this card.

Cols. Campbell's, Vance's and Avery's regiments exhibited great gallantry and courage. At an early stage Col. Vance was surrounded by the enemy. At this juncture, we are told, his voice was heard above the roar, "Stand firm, my men—I am with you for victory or death."—W. W. Holden, March 19th, 1863, 2 Days after the Newbern fight.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

When the mongrel Convention will complete its bantling, and submit it to the inspection of the people, cannot be determined. The people have been sufficiently amused with its proceedings and are now becoming weary and disgusted with its action. If anything can arouse the white people of the State to go to the polls and vote, a privilege graciously granted them by the Congress, it must be the so-called Constitution which this incompetent and unconstitutional body is engaged in framing.

What portion of it can be regarded as complete, we are unable to determine. The greater number of the articles, we presume, have passed their second reading. These articles are yet to be put together, when it is likely they will be reviewed and amended on their third reading.

Some days ago, we gave a general outline of their character, which subsequent information does not require us to change. We had hoped to obtain copies of each article, as adopted on its second reading, to lay before our readers, but these we have not yet been put in possession of.

The equality of all men, and equal civil and political rights, will be granted alike to white and black, except that we look for discrimination, in favor of the blacks, in the matter of suffrage; blacks and whites will be put upon the same footing as to sitting on juries, and as to holding office, without the usual and necessary guarantees as to capacity, responsibility or moral integrity; the property qualification, so essential to the protection of society and property, will be generally discarded; no prohibition as to mixing up blacks and whites in the militia, or in the public schools, or as to intermarriage, will be made, but every encouragement, both in the law and in the practice and intercourse of the advocates of negro equality, will be given to Africanization. Poor white men, unable to educate their children, are to be compelled to send them to school with the blacks. In the matter of taxation, discriminations may be made in favor of the blacks. A tax of nearly or quite $100,000 is to be levied upon the personal and real property of the people, to pay the expenses of the Convention, which three-fourths of the tax payers of the State never desired or assented to. This tax, we understand, is to be raised from the lands, tenements, furniture, goods and chattels, stock of all kinds, poultry, &c.,—in fine upon all the real and personal property of the people.

Besides a large increase of officers and salaries, an effort is making to compel the Legislature to levy a tax to pay, at an early day, the interest on the State debt. The general characteristics of our old customs are to be changed. The House of Commons is to be called the "House of Representatives." Instead of the simple division of towns and counties, we are to have "townships." New offices and new names are to be introduced, in accordance with the customs of the Northern States.

Thus it appears, that the new Constitution is to be indeed a new one, not in accordance with North Carolina, but with Yankee, customs; that among the ten or twelve Yankees in the Convention have been the leaders, masters and controllers of the eighty or ninety native nincompoops, sent to the Convention by the negroes and an insignificant portion of the white people of North Carolina. The people of North Carolina have asked for relief—have begged for bread, and these mongrels will give them a stone. No real relief is promised them—nor will be. Will the white people of North Carolina sanction such a Constitution? We hope not. We believe it to be morally impossible.

FROM THE LATE remarkably flatulent and flashy oration of the X. P. G., in Tucker Hall, we published, a few days ago, an elegant extract, beginning with "I fear no man under the canopy of Heaven," and ending with "loyal-end foremost." This extract is a pretty fair specimen of the speech. Either in whole, or in fragment, it is a style of oratory which entitles the speaker to the soubriquet of Windy Billy, Senior; and that other Windy Billy should modestly retire to a lower seat in the tabernacle of U. H. O. A's. "I am an American citizen," shouted the Senior, pounding his buzzom. Not quite, we believe. Rather premature, as we understand it. If he can boast American citizenship now, why could he not register? Why can he not vote? Why can he not hold office? Why is he begging to be relieved from his disabilities? Why did he sue for this boon, a few weeks ago, through his friend, the African Jeames? And why has the Arkansas Bummer yet to perform the filial duty of toteing on his Atlantean shoulders the precious burden to Washington City, to make him an American citizen? Where is the necessity of his bawling, according to promise, before Congress, for his regeneration and reliabilitation, until that patriotic body shall give him shrift, "if for no other reason, to git shet" of the Illinois Kurnel's importunities? He is under solema promise, we know, to manage his case, and put him through, though Jeames, the African, failed. But he has not put him through yet. Does the X. P. G. rely on the legal fiction of nunc pro tunc? He was bred to the bar, we believe, and ought to know that nunc looks backwards, and not ahead, in legal parlance; and he must take the blessing legal "end foremost." American citizenship is either present or past. On his own theory, he is not an American citizen now. Possibly he may not be, for some time to come, if ever. The gory locks of Abraham Lincoln may be shaken at the shuddering penitent longer than he expects. Those who dispense honors and citizenship are getting into the dipthong of the matter. The valiant and devoted Kurnel may swear till he is blue, "I have never seen a more loil man." And he may swear to no purpose; for that Congress loved Abram Lincoln, and honor his name, and very naturally will take some time in deciding on the honest loyalty of one who formerly thought him "a tyrant," "a fool," "a despot" and "a robber," and asked, significantly, "who would plot for his head?" "I am an American citizen,"—eh? Wait a see. It may be thus-wise—and it may be other-wise. Quien sabe?

TO THE CONSERVATIVE PRESS AND PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

We respectfully and earnestly suggest to the Conservatives to be calm, but firm,—diligent and prudent, but fearless. This is the advice of our friends at the North, in all their letters. This course is absolutely essential to our success and to the success of our friends at the North.

There is really no necessity for personalities or bitter, vindictive words, on the part of Conservatives. They have truth and right, and the Constitution of the United States, on their side. To vote on the new Constitution, and to defeat it by our votes, and to run candidates who will labor to defeat the Constitution and thereby defeat both tickets, are acts perfectly legitimate under the Reconstruction laws. But attempts to produce riots, or to disturb the public peace and order, should come alone from the Radical side, and should always be put down by the coolness and moderation of the Conservatives. Our opponents, fellow-Conservatives, are in the wrong; let us be sure to keep them in the wrong.

The candidate of the Radicals, for Gubernatorial honors, is an old sinner and an old stager in demagoguery, mendacity and abuse. There is scarcely a respectable man in the State, whom he has not, at one time or another, abused and shamelessly and falsely villified. If his own mendacity and scurrility were not patent, and well known to the people of the State, then Conservative gentlemen might possibly, in a decent way, throw back his cowardly assaults. But it is out of the question for gentlemen to descend into the cess-pools of villification, in order to check-mate him.

He has been twice defeated before the white people of the State for the office of Governor. It is the great aim of his ambition. Like a caged bear, chafed and worried at defeat, it may be expected that, as heretofore, he will exhaust all his powers of abuse and falsehood, to irritate and excite the Conservatives to personal retaliation. We beg Conservatives to let all his abuse pass as the idle wind. It can harm no one but himself, and his party.

We repeat that our friends at the North implore the Conservatives of the South to be calm,—to avoid all sources or causes of riot, or the disturbance of the public order, and by no means to allow their opponents to get them in the wrong. Forbearance, as far as possible, for the present, is demanded by the exigences of the times and the precarious condition of national affairs.

MONGRELISM.

We are tired and disgusted with detailing the dirty doings of the Scalawag Convention. The decent people of the State will not be surprised to see, by the report of proceedings on yesterday, that the negrophiliats, Yankee and native, on two distinct test issues, voted down propositions to insert, in the Article on Education, a prohibition of the mingling of white and negro children in Schools and white and negro youth in Colleges. It will be borne in mind that there is a compulsory section in the Article, requiring all children, between certain ages, who cannot obtain an education otherwise, to attend the public schools for a certain length of time. So that the recent act shipping hybrids in the Convention have thus voted, virtually and emphatically, to force the attendance of white children in schools with the negroes,—and that, too, so far as anything to the contrary appears in the Constitution, UNDER NEGRO TEACHERS!—If S. S. Ashley, the Yankee pedagogue, should be elected Superintendent of Public Instruction, we may be sure that his instinctive partialities will impel him to give the preference of employment to nigger instructors! Let the County canvassers take hold of this matter. The report of proceedings, as published to-day, (and we will give the whole of the infamous article very soon,) will furnish them the text; and by simply and forcibly presenting the truth to the real white people of North Carolina, they can arouse such a storm of indignation about these creatures, as will make them call upon the mountains to cover and hide them.

Two divorces were granted on yesterday—another imitation of New England manners and morals.

McDonald, of Chatham, just before the menagerie doors were closed, announced an invitation from the "ladies" of the African Church to the "Convention," to take supper with them, at a Feast last night. He was a chance for some of the gallants of the body to show their devotion to the fair sex,—and perhaps they improved it.

NEGRO-RADICAL APPOINTMENTS.

We learn that certain leading Radicals, including the X. P. G., "loyal end foremost," propose to address the negroes, and such people as may be induced, from motives of curiosity, to go out and hear them, at the following times and places, viz: Beaufort, March 10th; Newbern, 11th; Kinston, 12th; Goldsboro, 13th; Louisburg, 14th; Charlotte, 17th; Salisbury, 18th; Lexington, 19th; High Point, 20th; Wilmington, 23rd; Lumberton, 25th; Fayetteville, 27th; Jonesboro, 28th; Pittsboro, 30th; Wentworth, April 4th; Danbury, 6th; Dobson, 8th; Trap Hill, 9th; Wilkesboro, 10th; Taylorsville, 11th; Statesville, 13th.

The object of such appointments, and calling them "Republican mass-meetings," is to prevent Conservative speakers from confronting these men on the stump and exposing their debasing designs. This is evident. We suggest, as the best remedy, for counteracting whatever effects, if any, may be produced by these movements, that, at each one of the points designated, as soon after the visit of the negro Radicals as possible, Conservative mass-meetings be held, and that our ablest and most effective speakers shall be in attendance. Let our friends at once move in this matter!

"Col. Vance, in his letter consenting to the use of his name for Governor, said, "I shall be content with the people's will. Let them speak." They have spoken in a voice of thunder, commanding party strifes to be allayed, and calling the HERO, PATRIOT and STATESMAN, Zebulon Baird Vance, to the highest office in their gift."—N. C. Standard, Aug. 13th, 1862.

NIGHT SESSION.

THURSDAY, March 5, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 7¼ o'clock.

By permission, Mr. Ashley introduced a report from the committee on Printing, recommending an election of a Printer for the Convention. The report lies over until the morning.

SPECIAL ORDER—HOMESTEAD.

The question recurred upon the 2d section, as amended.

Mr. Tourgee took the floor, and, after speaking some time, offered a substitute for the above section.

Hood, (negro,) objected to it.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, favored it.

Mr. Hodnett said he was not willing to submit any proposition to the people, which he believed to be unconstitutional.—Disguise it as you may, the delegate from Guilford (Tourgee) was seeking to divide the land, and secure every man a share. This would sap the foundation of industry, because the idle would be as much protected as the industrious. If a bond which he held could be destroyed, his right in lands could be just as well destroyed. If it was inviolate, the other was also. He hoped the Convention would not be deluded.

After protracted discussion upon the several sections, as they were respectively read, and various amendments, the Homestead Article passed its second reading—yeas 78, nays 18.

On motion of Harris, of Wake, (negro,) it was ordered to be engrossed and made the special order, on its final reading, for to-morrow (Friday) night, at 7½ o'clock.

CALENDAR.

Mr. Forkner's resolution, limiting debate to one speech of fifteen minutes, unless by consent of the House, was taken up.

Hood, (negro,) moved to strike out "15" and insert "10."

On motion of Mr. Ragland, the House adjourned.

MORNING SESSION.

FRIDAY, March 6, 1868.

Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Warwick, (negro.)

Mr. Rodman presented a report from the Judiciary Committee, covering an ordinance protecting the rights of former slaves, who had purchased property.

Mr. Rodman moved to put it on its passage.

Mr. Abbott seconded the motion, and Mr. Heaton called for the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained, and the vote stood, yeas 95, nays 4.

Mr. Tourgee submitted a report from the Committee on Internal Improvements, favorable to an ordinance incorporating a branch of the Dan River Railroad, which was accepted and adopted.

Mr Hodnett called up the report of the select committee appointed to memorialize Congress for a reduction of the tax on tobacco and liquors distilled from fruits. The report was read and adopted.

Mr. Heaton arose to a personal explanation in relation to a publication in the Carolinian.

SPECIAL ORDER—REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

When the first section was read, Mr. Graham, of Orange, said that though he was of the committee, he had not thought proper to sign the report. In the first place, he thought it too long. The first five sections could be condensed into one. In another, provision was made for the indictment of delinquent counties. He could not understand how counties could be indicted, any more than the State. He then proceeded, briefly, to point out various objectionable features in the report.

Section 1 was adopted, and sections 2, 3 and 4, after immaterial amendments.

Mr. Durham moved the following, as an additional section:

"The General Assembly shall provide schools for the black children of the State, separate and apart from those provided for WHITE CHILDREN."

Mr. French, of Bladen, said that, according to the report, the Counties would regulate such matters. He, therefore, hoped the amendment would be voted down.

Mr. Ashley said this article was framed for the benefit of all children.

Harris, of Wake, (negro) objected to it, on the same grounds.

Hood (negro) ditto.

Mr. Ashley moved to add the following words to Mr. Durham's section:

"It being understood, however, that this section is not offered in sincerity or because there is any necessity for it, but that it is proposed for the sole purpose of breeding prejudice and bringing about the practical enslavement of the colored race."

Mr. Durham said that it was manifest why that amendment was offered. He further remarked that he had been called to order, and other Conservatives had been called to order, for reflecting, as they had a right to do, upon the political sentiments of members of the Republican party. He had been denounced, his honesty and sincerity called in question, and his personal motives reflected upon, by a delegate whom he could not notice (Harris, of Wake, negro.) The Chair did not call him to order. This thing had occurred with various Conservative gentlemen on this floor. Now he wished the Reporters to state that the utmost latitude and privileges were allowed, by the Chair, to Republican members, which were denied to Conservative gentlemen.—Rank partiality was practiced, and he wished the people of the State to know it. He intended, if he could, to make gentlemen go on record in this matter.

Mr. Hodnett said that he regretted to see party spirit manifested on this question. He had hoped to have separate schools established. The prejudices of his people would not allow otherwise. A wise statesman had said a wise legislator should ever respect the prejudices of the people. His constituents would think that the article insidiously meant to put the children together.

Mr. Abbott asked, did not the article leave the question to the counties?

Mr. Hodnett: But the article says that schools shall be established for all.

Mr. Tourgee: Is not a policy adopted now, leaving this matter to the counties, where the article says a school or schools shall be established?

Mr. Hodnett: Well, what will we do in our county, where there are five or six hundred colored majority?

Mr. Pool: I desire to ask you a question.

Mr. Hodnett: It seems, from the number of questions that I am asked, that I am touching you on a tender point.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, and Harris, of Wake, (negro,) next had a say.

Mr. Ashley called the previous question.

Mr. Durham said that the Conservatives wished to discuss the measure; he hoped the Reporters would state that the opportunity to debate the matter was denied them.

The call for the previous question was sustained.

The question recurred upon Mr. Ashley's amendment.

Mr. Durham asked for the yeas and nays, but they were refused to him and the amendment was declared adopted.

The question recurred upon the section, as amended. The yeas and nays were called, on motion of Mr. Abbott, and, resulted in yeas 15, nays 90, (the Conservatives voting in the affirmative.)

Sections 6 to 17, inclusive, were adopted.

In section 18, (relative to the University,) Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved the addition of the following proviso:

"That there shall be separate and distinct schools and colleges for the black and white races."

Mr. Durham said that it had been stated, on this floor, that the colored people did not wish mixed schools. Then why do you refuse to say, here, that such mixture shall in no case be made? You say that counties will regulate these matters, but the white people, in those counties that have a negro majority, demand that we shall here incorporate, in the Constitution, a clause to protect them. In the counties, in which the blacks have such large majorities, they would argue, if the white people are so much our social superiors, they may educate their children as they may, but we have the power and will manage the schools as we please. The white people of those counties demand, at your hands, protection against this thing. We make this ANOTHER TEST QUESTION, and if you refuse to incorporate such a clause in the Constitution, we have a perfect right to draw the inference that you are determined to force "social equality." What other construction can the people, as sensible people, place upon your action? This statement about leaving the matter to the different counties, amounts simply to giving the colored majorities in different counties the power to force the white people in those counties to send their children to mixed schools, or keep them out of them.

Mr. French, of Chowan, opposed the amendment.

Galloway (negro) said that this was intended to frighten weak kneed Republicans. If such an amendment was adopted, he would canvass against the Constitution.

Mr. Rodman gave his reasons for objecting to the amendment; and so did Mayo (negro.)

Mr. Abbott did not think the matter of having blacks and whites going to school together was so grave a matter, after all, when looked at in an unprejudiced manner. But as peculiar circumstances existed here, he was willing to yield, in some degree, to the prejudices of the people. He thought the plan of leaving the matter to the Counties would regulate the matter in such a manner that both races would have separate schools.

Mr. Ashley called the previous question, and the call was sustained.

The question recurred on Mr. Graham's amendment.

Mr. Graham called for the yeas and nays. They were refused and the amendment was voted down. The section, as it stood, was adopted.

The question recurred on the article, as a whole. The yeas and nays were called and resulted, yeas 74, nays 12.

Those who voted in the negative were: Messrs. Daniel, Durham, Ellis, Etheridge, Graham, of Orange, Hare, Hodnett, King, of Lincoln, McCubbins, Merritt, Sanderlin, and Williams, of Wake.

Mr. Ashley moved that the 3rd reading of this article be made the special order for Monday next, at 12 o'clock. Carried.

By permission, Mr. Rodman, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported an ordinance favorable to a divorcement between certain parties.

After a great deal of debate, the previous question was called and the question recurred upon the adoption of the ordinance. The yeas and nays were demanded and had, and the vote stood, yeas 60, nays 24.

Mr. Rodman introduced another report, of a similar character, divorcing John Robbers, of Chowan county, from his wife. The yeas and nays being demanded and called upon the adoption of the report, resulted in yeas 51, nays 21.

On motion of Mr. Renfrow, the House adjourned.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, read a communication from the "ladies of the African Church," inviting the members of the Convention to attend a festival, to be held at the old Guion Hotel, this evening.

We have just conversed with a friend who saw Col. Vance, in Petersburg, on Wednesday night last, about 9 o'clock. The Col. was passing through with his regiment, towards City Point. Our friend walked with him for a mile. He was on foot, having given up his horse to one of his sick soldiers. * * * * * * * * *—Standard, Aug. 6th, 1862.

OUR TICKET.

It is with pride and with pleasure we present to our readers the white man's ticket for North Carolina. Such an array of true worth, great ability, high social standing, and every noble quality, is rarely combined in the same number of names. It is a ticket of which the people of the State may be justly proud, and one for the success of which every fair and honest means should be used. With Vance for our leader, we should carry the State with an overwhelming majority.

A more striking contrast could hardly be imagined than that which exists between the above nominations and those made by the Jacobin party. With a very few exceptions, and those members of the Conservative party put on the ticket, to give it some show of respectability, there is not a name which should command the respect of any decent white man, or respectable negro.—To put W. W. Holden in nomination for Governor, is an insult to the State. He is a man who has been faithless to every trust ever committed to him. His life has been one of palpable contradiction, and unblushing falsehoods from his first entrance upon the arena of politics. Faithless to the whites—an enemy of the negro in the past—how can he be faithful now? We intend to let the colored people of this county know who W. W. Holden is. We intend to show him up in such a light, and we intend to bring facts and figures in proof, that the colored people, if they have any honor or self-respect, will be compelled to reject him. We tell them now, he is a traitor and will deceive them. All he wants, and all the scalawags who are associated with him want, is the negro's vote, and after that the negro may go. Look at their nomination for State officers, and not a negro on it. Is this treating the negroes justly? Does it not show that they simply want to crawl into office over the shoulders of the negro!—Warrenton Courier.

FRANCIS E. SHOMER, Esq.—The nomination of this gentleman as a candidate for the judgeship of this judicial circuit, was a well merited compliment, as well to his abilities as to his great moral worth. Few men possess in a more eminent degree the moral qualities requisite for a good Judge. Singularly free from everything like prejudice, possessing a remarkably well balanced and highly cultivated mind, accompanied with great urbanity of disposition, he will, if elected, if the new Constitution should be ratified by the people soon become a universal favorite one of the most popular Judges in the State. It is true that he has for some time been withdrawn from the active practice of his profession, and may have neglected the study of the law to some extent, but a man of his talents can soon qualify himself for any office. His nomination is very gratifying to his many friends, and his great popularity will add much to the strength of our ticket.—Old North State.

In Memoriam.

The death of Col. THOMAS HILL, of Pittsboro', N. C., has already been announced in the Sentinel; but such a man ought not to pass to his rest without a tribute of respect and regard from one who knew him long and well, and appreciated his noble traits of character. These ought to be held in remembrance for admiration and imitation. To natural good sense and a liberal education, he added a degree of mental cultivation too seldom attained by men in the busy walks of life. He was a man of reading and observation, gifted with a memory which enabled him at all times to command the treasures of his mental storehouse. He was a most agreeable conversationalist—one of a class too rare, who could talk of something besides, and better than, "the almighty dollar."—And his conversation always enforced those high principles of honor which he practiced through life. His perception of those principles was intuitive and true, and his observance of them habitual and unerring. Eminently generous and hospitable, his house was the resort of friends, old and young, who met a welcome so cordial and a politeness so winning, as could spring only from a generous heart. He was a thorough gentleman. That was an inheritance which he cherished and transmitted untarnished. And to crown all, he was a Christian. His religious character, formed in years of health and prosperity, was purified and strengthed by nearly a year's sickness, attended by agonizing pain, during which he looked forward to the end with that hopeful resignation to the Divine will, which makes the Christian's death-bed a profitable study for the living, to guide their feet in the narrow way that, we trust, led him to life eternal.

In his death we mourn the loss of the affectionate husband and father, the public-spirited citizen, and the true-hearted gentleman and friend.

THE SECOND SERMON in the series to Young Men, delivered at the request of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, will be preached to-morrow, (Sunday,) evening, at 7½ o'clock, in the Methodist Church, by the Rev. H. T. Hudson.

M. A. BLEDSOE, Esq.—We are gratified to announce that M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., the Conservative candidate for the Senate, will address the people of Franklin, on Tuesday next, at Louisburg. He will be glad to meet Mr. Willie D. Jones, the mongrel candidate. The Franklin people, we hope, will turn out, en masse, to hear Mr. Bledsoe, and we promise them a withering exposure of the enormities of negro Radicalism.

DISCUSSION IN WAKE.—We learn that certain Radicals propose to address the people at Holly Springs to-day; at Banks', on Saturday next, and at Franklin's, on Saturday thereafter.

We are pleased to learn that Messrs. J. Q DeCarteret, Geo. M. Whiting, Jesse A. Norris, Chas. M. Busbee and Jesse Winburn, Conservative Canvassers, will be in attendance, and ask a division of time, for the purpose of discussing the great issue.

The County Canvassers will also address the people at Sorrell's, on the 13th.

COL. E. D. HALL.—Our gallant candidate for Lieutenant Governor is engaged, this week, in canvassing Onslow county. We learn, from the Wilmington Journal, that he addressed, on Tuesday, a very large crowd at Jacksonville. His effort is very highly spoken of, and is said to have given much satisfaction and aroused the people of the county.

A thorough organization of the Conservative party was effected, and Mr. John W. Shackelford was nominated for the Legislature—an excellent selection.

FEDERAL TAXES.—The Assistant Assessors request us to announce to the people, and to urge their immediate attention to the fact, that it is full time for tax payers to render in an account of their income, and also to make their applications for renewal of license.

A LARGE and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservatives of Brunswick was held in Smithville, on the 2nd. Eloquent and able speeches were made by Cols. John D. Taylor and S. D. Thruston, Capts. D. C. Allen and Swift Galloway, and D. S. Cowan, Esq., of Brunswick, and Major D. J. Devane, of New Hanover, and Capt. John W. Ellis, of Columbus. The people were thoroughly aroused to the good work before them.

THE CONSERVATIVES of Jones are to have a mass meeting at Trenton, on the 14th.

Our friends in Craven and New Hanover are to have mass meetings on the 10th.—Judge Person and Col. Cowan will address the latter. They are both of the number of our most eloquent and popular speakers, and a very large collection of people is anticipated to hear them.

THE CONSERVATIVES of Rowan are to hold a Mass Meeting, in Salisbury, to-day.

ATTEMPT TO CREATE A ROW.

We had determined to say nothing, unless forced to do so, about a lawless attempt of certain white Radicals to insult and disturb the Conservative County Convention, on Thursday. What they most desire is a popular disturbance, growing out of the present exasperated temper of the public mind, which may be used, at the North and in Congress, in order to the further oppression and humiliation of the white people of the South. In this we trust that they may not be gratified, until forbearance ceases to be a virtue. There is a point, however, beyond which endurance will be criminal, and we warn the fomenters of strife and blood-shed, white and black, that an independent and self respecting community are not to be tampered with too far.

The following observations from the Carolinian are so sensible and temperate, that we take pleasure in endorsing them heartily:

"Just at the close of the county meeting of the white men of Wake, held at the Court House in this city, on yesterday, an attempt was made by Jos. William Holden, one of the Radical nominees for the Legislature, to create a disturbance by denouncing Col. J. P. H. Russ, for remarks made by the latter, during a speech he delivered on the floor some hour or more previous. He was, however, summarily ejected from the hall.

W. W. Holden, the Radical nominee for Governor, attended by a gang of negroes and their pale-faced brethren, also attempted, about the same time, to intimidate the meeting by collecting before the door of the Court House, and using offensive and threatening language.

In the name of law and order, and the peace and quiet of this community, we solemnly protest against this palpable attempt to incite violence and bloodshed. No man, having the good of his fellow-citizens and the well-being of the community in which he lives, at heart, would be guilty of such outrages. There is not one particle of justification for it. We hold that no man who wishes satisfaction of another, for any cause, will attempt to seek it in a public assembly. If such a course is attempted, it proves the fact that no satisfactory solution of the controversy is anticipated, for it is to be presumed that there are always peace-makers in every crowd who would refuse to allow a breach of the peace. If a feud exists, and one of the parties require or is anxious to obtain satisfaction, there are a thousand opportunities for him to obtain it—in the street or on the field. Therefore we look on this assault as an insult offered to a public meeting, and a premeditated attempt to create a row and bloodshed.

We tell these stirrers up of strife and inciters of mob law, that they are treading on dangerous ground. The people will not quietly allow such outrages to be oft repeated. Let a war of classes or races once begin—let scenes of bloodshed and strife be once inaugurated, and they who commence it will have most cause to regret it. They who sow the wind will reap the whirlwind. But it can be averted. Let the lovers of peace, both white and black, frown down and rebuke these efforts to establish mob law, and all will yet be well.

With personal matters between man and man, neither we, nor the public, have anything to do, but an attempt to gag and intimidate public assemblies will not be tolerated."

THE GREENSBORO' PATRIOT.—We are glad to welcome this able and excellent journal again to our table, after a long absence.—Mr. Caldwell has greatly improved the appearance of the Patriot, and promises to make his paper, notwithstanding the difficulties by which he has been surrounded, more acceptable than ever. We wish him great success.

Col. Vance and Lt. Col. Hoke, with four companies of Col. Avery's regiment, were still in the town. Col. Vance must have commenced the retreat at a still later period, and finding that he was cut off by the burning of the bridges, retreated across Brice's Creek, and up the South side of Trent, into Jones. He even sent reinforcements to Lt. Col. Hoke. This retreat by Col. Vance and Lt. Col. Hoke evinces fine judgement and military skill, and merits the applause of the country.—W. W. Holden, March 26th, 1862.

STATE ITEMS.

—The following young gentlemen from this State recently graduated at the Washington University School of Medicine in Baltimore, viz: W S Anderson, R V Cowan, E A Hall, A G Jones, W W Latham, J L Laxton, J E Matthews, D T Millard, T M Parks, W P Parks, C M Payne, J D Perry, W E Richardson, R T Saunders, V N Seawell, J W Shuford, S P Sparrow, Josephus Turner, S P Waldo, E J Williams, and R E Walker.

—The jail in Warrenton was burned on Wednesday morning. The fire is supposed to be the result of an attempt, upon the part of some one outside, to burn a way for the prisoners to escape. There were nine prisoners confined in it, who were gotten out with much difficulty. But for the unusual stillness of the night, great damage to the town would necessarily have resulted.

—On Thursday night of last week, at about midnight, the inmates of the residence of Mrs. Hybart, two or three miles from Fayetteville, were awakened to find the house in flames. By great exertion they succeeded in saving a portion of the household furniture, but we regret to learn that the loss was almost entire, it being impossible to check the fire. It is supposed that the smoke house was first on fire, which was then communicated to the dwelling. The members of the family believe it to have been incendiarism.

—The Fayetteville News regrets to learn that an unfortunate affair took place last week in Lumberton—a general row and fight between whites and negroes, in which several were badly beaten and one man was stabbed and nearly killed. The whole disturbance grew out of a trifling difference around a wagon, and had no commencement in any political quarrel. The name of the wounded man is Graham, (white;) he was stabbed in the back by a negro woman, and it is supposed that the wound is mortal.

SENTINEL FOR CONVENTION.

Our friends who subscribed for the Sentinel, during the Convention, are admonished that that body proposes to adjourn in a few days. Those who desire to continue it longer, will please renew at once.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 6, M.

Mr. Field took ground, in arguing the McCardle case, to-day, that the preambles to the Reconstruction Acts were false, and hence the extreme measures were unnecessary as well as unconstitutional. The speech is much praised.

Reverdy Johnson alone took the oath, as a member of the Senate-Court, on the Bible, which he called for. Other Senators simply held up the hand.

It is stated that the President said, last night, that Hancock would not be relieved.

WHISKEY ROW IN "LOYAL" TENNESSEE.

KNOXVILLE, March 6, M.

In a whiskey-revenue row, in Claiborne Co., three men were killed. A company of Cavalry is en route to aid the Revenue officers.

FROM MONTGOMERY.

MONTGOMERY, March 6, M.

Two of the men arrested in this city, about ten days ago, for burglary, &c., have been tried and convicted. It was shown, on the trial, that they are New York thieves—part of a gang operating in Southern cities. They will be sent to the Penitentiary, to-day.

In response to an application for the appointment of an Alderman here, Gen. Meade says that he does not desire to make an appointment, as the people will soon be called on to appoint one of their own choice.

NEW ENGLISH CABINET.

LONDON, March 6, M.

D'Israeli was received with cheers from both sides, in announcing that the Queen had entrusted him with the formation of a Cabinet, and that he could not decline the gracious offer. He said that the policy of Lord Derby would be followed in domestic affairs and that of Stanley in foreign affairs.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, March 6, P. M.

By order of Grant, Gen Hancock has revoked his order removing the Street Commissioner of the city.

Gen. Jas. B. Steedman was, last night, nominated, by the Democratic State Convention, one of the Delegates at large to the National Democratic Convention. The others are B. F. Jones, Jas McCleaky and Duncan S. Page.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 6, P. M.

SENATE.—A communication was received from the President, relative to Consular interferences in Italy. Referred to Foreign Relations.

Several other communications were received and referred.

At one o'clock, Judge Chase entered and called the Senate to order.

The journal of yesterday's impeachment proceedings was read, and Judge Chase announced business.

A motion to postpone Wade's swearing, until the others were sworn, was made

Dixon commenced speaking, when Drake called him to order under procedure rules.

Judge Chase decided that the procedure rules could only apply after the Court organized.

Drake appealed and Mr. Chase was sustained by the following vote:

YEAS.—Anthony, Buckalew, Corbett, Davis, Dixon, Fessenden, Fowler, Frelinghuysen, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreery, Morrill, of Maine, Norton, Patterson of Tennessee, Pomeroy, Ross, Saulsbury, Sherman, Sprague, Van Winkle, Willey and Williams—24.

NAYS.—Cameron, Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Conness, Drake, Ferry, Harlan, Howard, Morgan, Morrill, of Vermont, Morton, Nye, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Wilson and Yates—20

Applause followed, but was promptly suppressed.

The debate proceeded, when Mr. Hendricks withdrew his objection, and Wade was sworn and the organization completed.

Howard moved to inform the Managers.

Judge Chase: Before putting that question to the Senate, the Chief Justice thinks it his duty to submit to the Senate the rules of procedure in the judgment of the Chief Justice, the Senate is now organized as a distinct body from the Senate sitting in its legislative capacity. It performs a distinct function; the members are under a different oath, and the presiding officer is not the President pro tempore, but the Chief Justice of the United States. Under these circumstances the Chair conceives that the rules adopted by the Senate, in its legislative capacity, are not the rules for the government of the Senate sitting as a Court, unless they be also adopted by that body. In this judgment, if it be erroneous, he desires to be corrected by the judgment of the Court.—Therefore, if it be permitted, he will take the sense of the House on this question, whether the rules adopted, on the 2nd of March, shall be considered as the rules for the proceedings in this body.

The Senate responded aye and Judge Chase then said that the rules of the Senate would be considered as the rules of this body. The Managers then entered, and, at their instance, on motion, summons was issued to the President, returnable to Friday, the 13th, to which day the Court adjourned.

Wade then took the Chair, and, after a short Legislative Session, the Senate went into Executive Session and adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.—General business unimportant.

The impeachment managers were allowed to sit during the session, to send for persons and papers and examine witnesses under oath.

The Tennessee election case was resumed, when the bill relieving Butler from political disabilities passed—88 to 23.

A bill was introduced, relieving John Young Brown from political disabilities, and referred to the Committee on Elections. Adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 6, P. M.

Cabinet to-day all present, except Secretary of War.

Geo. T. Vickers has been elected Democratic Senator from Maryland. He was an officer in the Union army.

The House to-day passed a bill modifying the iron-clad for persons from whom political disabilities have been removed by acts of Congress.

In consequence of the absence of Judge Chase, the McCardle case was postponed to Monday.

VIRGINIA HYBRIDS—WHOLESALE DISFRANCHISEMENT.

RICHMOND, March. 6, P. M.

The Convention, to-day adopted a clause, disfranchising all who gave aid and comfort to the rebellion, after having taken the oath to support the Constitution of the United States.

An amendment to modify the meaning of "aid and comfort," so as to except acts of kindness by parents to their sons in the Confederate army, or voting for the Secession ordinance, was defeated and the clause adopted: ayes 49, nays 28.

Another clause was adopted, disfranchising all officers in the rebellion above Lieutenant in the Army and above the rank of Master in the Navy.

On the last clause, a Conservative refused to vote at all, saying he would commit perjury by so doing.

A motion to expel him for contempt, was laid on the table. Adjourned.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, GREATLY FACILITATES the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for years and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and FEARLESS OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.
Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public, FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c. in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.
Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.
I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.
My partner, Colonel E. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore we have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.
And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.
The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILLHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me, thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.
Terms:—For selling lands the five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but exchanges of whatever nature, unless a sale is effected, for an additional consideration, the amount of which in each case, and payable out of the proceeds of sale.
Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members, six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled, on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	18 00
" " six months	9 00
" " three months	4 50
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	6 00
" " six months	3 00
" " three months	1 50
Weekly " for one year	3 00
" " six months	1 50

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
